

Complaints:

All complaints need to be put in writing and emailed to complaints@mudgeedistrictnetball.hwy.com.au

Complaints will be dealt with confidence and will be dealt with as per NSW Netball Complaints policy.

If any issues arise during your game time and it can be sorted straight away, please head to the control room and seek advice. A committee member can always come to the court to assist in matters they see fit to. If you are having issues with umpiring, please send someone to the control room as soon as possible.
